Dear Sandi,

When the ladies we serve come to us, most of them have absolutely nothing. Providing a safe haven where they can begin the healing process takes a lot of resources. Your support in donating items for our Silent Auction at the White Party is invaluable.

I had to let you know how much your generous basket donation meant to our event for Turning Point! Caring persons like you are the reason we can continue meeting the needs of these ladies and their children in a time of great personal crisis. Thank you for helping make the Silent Auction a great success.

Please accept our heartfelt gratitude on their behalf. You have helped us make their lives here so much better, and this means more than you can ever know. If you would like more information on our programs or learn how to get involved, please visit our website at turntoday.net.

Sincerely,

Dear Sandi,

I want you to know the difference your donation of a Gift Basket with wonderful products and gift cards to our 2013 White Party silent auction is making. Because of your generosity the auction was an overwhelming success, raising nearly $9,000 to help women and children breaking free of domestic violence. Because of your gift, Turning Point can continue to be the safe haven and support for families who want to start new lives.

Last year Turning Point served more than 200 women and children, providing 7,618 bed-nights, 328,500 meals, 876 hours of counseling, 859 hours of court advocacy, domestic violence prevention and other services. We are happy to report that 77% of those who completed our program in 2011 are now living violence-free lives! It is work we could not do without the funds raised by the White Party.

Thank you again for your donation and for demonstrating the community leadership and collaboration that make a difference in the lives of so many.

With warmest regards,

Dear Marc,

On behalf of the families of Turning Point, I would like to thank you for being a Sponsor of our very successful 2013 White Party. Because of your generous contribution of $500, we exceeded our goal and are able to continue to provide the safe haven and support services so necessary for women and children fleeing domestic violence.

Last year Turning Point served more than 200 women and children, providing 7,618 bed-nights, 328,500 meals, 876 hours of counseling, and 859 hours of court advocacy, domestic violence prevention and other services. We could not offer these services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year without your support.

Your sponsorship is a demonstration of the leadership and collaboration so important to addressing the challenging issues in our community. We deeply appreciate the continued support you have given to the women and children who depend on Turning Point for a start at a new, violence free life.

Thank you for being a partner in breaking the cycle of domestic violence.

Sincerely,

Naomi Herndon
